The purpose of developing guidelines for reclamation is to bring an enhanced focus on reclamation and its importance to the function of the landscape. These reclamation guidelines will help to provide consistency in reclamation efforts across the state and provide individuals creating surface disturbing activities various options to consider in their reclamation efforts.

Strategy 10B: Wyoming Reclamation Protocol Guidelines

(PDF Version)