JOSEPH B. MEYER
ATTORNEY GENERAL

Mr. Grant Stumbough
Wyoming Department of Agriculture
Smith Agriculture Building
Cheyenne, Wyoming 82002

Dear Mr. Stumbough:

I am writing in response to your letter dated May 15, 1989 regarding the Governmental Claims Act. If an individual board member is sued, he would be represented by the County Attorney because the districts are primarily funded with a local mill levy. State agencies and state boards and commissions are represented by the Attorney General's Office. The cost of the representation is paid from the state insurance pool established by the Governmental Claims Act.

If you have further questions, please call on me or Monty Lauer, 777-6796, who handles the state insurance pool.

Sincerely,

Donna Rice

Donna Rice,
Assistant Attorney General
